

Morning Juice

Your daily buzz before breakfast

BEHEADING ... The brutal beheading of hostage Kim Sun-il by militants was met with sorrow and outrage.

UNPLUGGED ... A proposal could limit the number of e-mails consumers send to put an end to spamming.

SUIT OPENS EYES ... Wal-Mart's sex discrimination lawsuit has companies checking their own practices.

TORTURE OK'D ... The Bush administration argued torture might be justified in the fight against al-Qaida.

EXPANSION ... General Motors Corp plans to spend $250 million to expand a design center in China.

BUG SCARE ... Officials are looking for another deadly mosquito-borne disease, Rift Valley fever.

BAD VEGGIES ... FDA forbids Mexicans from shipping green onions to the U.S. due to last year's outbreak.

RECOVERY ... Gov. Ed Rendell puts political weight behind an economic recovery plan for Pittsburgh.

Wednesday
6.23.04
NEW CASTLE
NEWS

Quick
Click

4-H LEADER INTO SIXTH DECADE

Andrew Rush/NEWS

Marge McElwain-Miller has passed the half-century mark as a 4-H leader yet continues to work with the program serving youth. She has been a motherly and grandmotherly figure to thousands of youngsters through 4-H. The Slippery Rock Township woman has been a leader in the organization for 54 years. Before that, she was a youth member for a decade. She said she hopes to continue her involvement as long as she can. Complete details in today's News.

the NEWS

Today's Quick Picks

Local stories you will see in today's edition of the New Castle News.

Police, D.A. dispute death

New Castle police and the Lawrence County district attorney are disputing a charge involving a motorcycle death. The family, meanwhile, says they only want justice.

High school gets final blow

All that's left of New Castle Senior High is a pile of wood, dirt, and bricks. The school felt its final blow yesterday as the final remains were torn down.

Supervisor remembered

County commissioners yesterday remembered Plain Grove Township Supervisor Eugene Francis Stewart who died Friday. Stewart helped develop the planning commission and zoning ordinance.

the SPORTS

Today's Quick Picks

Baseball

YESTERDAY
Astros 5, Pirates 4
Indians 9, White Sox 11

TONIGHT
Pirates@Astros, 8:05 p.m.
TV: FSN; RADIO: KDKA 1020
Indians@White Sox, 8:05 p.m.
TV: FSN; RADIO: WTAM 1100

Who's News: Williams win, Sharbaugh to move on Serena Williams loves Wimbledon. Marat Safin hates it. She walked out on Centre Court with a diva's confidence yesterday and extended her winning streak to 15 matches at the All England Club. He gave up during another early loss and says he's finished trying to do well here.

Wilmington High's Ryan Sharbaugh will continue his academic and athletic career at Westminster College on the football squad. Sharbaugh, a 5-foot-11, 189-pound tight end, caught 13 passes and one touchdown as a senior and was an All-Mercer County Athletic Conference Second Team selection.

Who's Hot: NASCAR DRIVER DAVE BLANEY, 41, WAS PICKED UP BY RICHARD CHILDRESS TO DRIVE HIS NO. 30 CAR

NEED A PART?

DODGE • CHRYSLER • JEEP • MITSUBISHI • DAEWOO

NEW EXTENDED HOURS

Call Mark DeSabato Direct @ 724/342-0242

Dodge City
More Cars, More Trucks, LESS Bucks!

MON. & THURS.
TILL 9 PM

1615 E. State St. Hermitage

SATURDAYS
8 AM TILL 2 PM

Insurance Group

Auto • Home • Life • Business Amy McConnell

Insure today to secure tomorrow.

AUTO • HOME • LIFE • BUSINESS • ANNUITIES

Amy McConnell

701 Wilmington Ave.,
New Castle, PA 16101

724/658-7713 fax 724/658-7731

PROTECTION & PEACE OF MIND FROM A FINANCIALLY SECURE COMPANY